*Chosen to 2007 Super Lawyers

All the money in the world cannot repair a broken body or restore a deceased mother to her family. But when people find themselves the victims of situations they did not cause, due to the negligence of a driver, a manufacturer, a hospital, doctor or nursing home, they often turn to Rubin Guttman and the firm of Rubin Guttman & Associates.

Rubin Guttman & Associates has been handling serious Ohio personal injury, medical malpractice and nursing home litigation for almost three decades. The firm prides itself on the quality of its practice as well as the respect and compassion with which it treats all clients as they begin rebuilding shattered lives. It is a mark of this respect for their clients that the firm maintains translation capabilities in Spanish, Hebrew and Russian.

The firm regularly takes on cases involving wrongful death, traumatic brain injury, paralysis and other life-altering injuries, winning the substantial awards necessary to compensate clients and allow them to obtain the care and economic wherewithal they need to cope with their catastrophic injuries and losses. Rubin Guttman &

Associates attorneys are seasoned trial lawyers who deal with serious injuries and get serious results.

SEASONED TRIAL LAWYERS WHO DEAL WITH SERIOUS INJURIES AND GET SERIOUS RESULTS

Aggressive, thorough, persistent and dedicated are words that describe the firm's approach to its clients and practice. For these reasons, Rubin Guttman & Associates has often been called on to represent builders and developers in crisis situations as well as numerous businesses and professionals with insurance coverage and other contract disputes.

The firm prides itself on the quality of its graphic presentations, using both traditional and electronic media as well as high-quality graphic artists, both before and during trial, to ensure that presentations are compelling and winning.

Rubin Guttman is the principal attorney in Rubin Guttman & Associates. In practice for almost 30 years, Guttman is a published author who devotes significant time to advocacy on behalf of schools, schoolchildren and charitable institutions. He has taken on numerous leadership roles, appeared on radio and television and was a featured legal affairs guest commentator on WKYC-TV3's Golden Opportunities. Rubin Guttman is a member of the prestigious Million-Dollar Advocates Forum and a life member in Who's Who in America.

An integral part of the firm's success, partner Ann M. Stockmaster is heavily involved in all areas of the firm's practice. Her legal and organizational skills help the firm manage its relatively large docket of complex and diverse cases.

At Rubin Guttman & Associates, winning with integrity and respect for the client is the hallmark of its practice.
